The "Corporate Discount" is a service whereby we offer a discount on the total price of the FILMMAKER PRO video stopwatch (hereinafter referred to as "the Product") when one or more 12 pieces of the Product are sold to a corporate customer. (hereinafter referred to as "the Discount")

■ Terms and conditions

1. The transaction must be in the name of a legal entity.
2. The discount has the following patterns.
 - (1) 12 pieces(a inner box) or more but less than 96 pieces(a outer box): 8% discount from Amazon price (excluding tax)
 - (2) 96 pieces or more: 20% discount from Amazon price (excluding tax)
 - (3) For school corporations, more than 12 pieces and less than 96 pieces: 40% discount
 - (4) For school corporations with 96 pieces or more: 50% discount

However, (3) and (4) are limited to cases where the school corporation uses them as teaching materials or teaching equipment.

■ Notes

- The Discount is not wholesale and is intended for actual customers of the product. For retailers, we will offer a different price than this discount for each vendor.
- The Product is open priced and does not have a list price. The Discounts are based on the Amazon price in the country where the trading company is located (not the registered address, but the location of each trading company). We will set the corporate price separately.
- The Discount from the main price without sales tax. Sales tax will be separately charged.
- Shipping fees will be charged separately and are not eligible for the Discounts.
- If a product to which the Discount has been applied is found to have been resold, the discount service will be voided and the customer will be required to pay the difference. However, this excludes cases where the resale is made at the discretion of an individual to whom ownership has been transferred and not a legal entity, and where the sale is in units of one unit.
- Foreign school corporations that meet Conditions 2-(3) and 2-(4) may be required to submit a certificate issued by the government of the country where the school corporation is located.
